Japanese Language Teachers' Association of Western Australia
西オーストラリア州日本語教師協会

2023 Calligraphy Competition

心

"Kokoro" = Heart, Mind, Spirit

This year's Kanji is "Kokoro"= Heart, Mind, Spirit.

Prizes include fude pens and $20 gift vouchers!

Entries must be received by September 1, 2023.
Post to: JLTAWA, PO BOX 1103, Subiaco, 6904

Note: this competition is only open to students of current JLTAWA members.

Teacher information:

Each school may send in one entry per category.

Judges will NOT select one from multiple entries on your behalf.

Category A: Years 1-3
Category B: Year 4
Category C: Year 5
Category D: Year 6
Category E: Year 7
Category F: Year 8
Category G: Year 9

Please note the following:

- Entries should be on the standard calligraphy paper similar to A4 size with black ink, however, we will accept entries on white A4 paper (i.e. photocopier or art paper) or with black paint (watered to similar consistency as ink).
- A3 or ink of any other colour will not be accepted.
- Entries must be students own work and not traced or had teacher assistance.
- Students should write their own name (in katakana or kanji) vertically on the lower left hand edge on the front of the calligraphy (see attached example).
- Include a copy of the enclosed label with student name, year level, school, teacher name, email address and signed declaration on reverse of the calligraphy.
- The competition is open from when you receive this flyer notification.
- Please do not leave posting of entries until the last minute, we suggest using express post if you are sending close to the date.
- If you want to verify that your entry has been received please email jltawapresident@gmail.com

Student name: _____

Year: _____

School: _____

Teacher name: _____

Teacher email: _____

Teacher

signature

I declare that the work submitted is totally that of the above named student.

_____

Student Example

心

ジェイムス

Calligraphy Competition 2023 しゅうじれんしゅうシート

おんよみ Chinese reading	シン
くんよみ Japanese reading	こころ
いみ English meaning	シン　Heart, こころ Mind, Spirit

Look at the stroke order and practise writing several times.

Correct Stroke Order